Introduction

The Transfer Pricing (TP) Guidelines 2024 has introduced many changes to the TP compliance requirements such as the redefinition of the threshold for preparing Full Contemporaneous TP Documentation and Minimum TP Documentation and expansion of exemption criteria for preparing TP Documentation but requiring arm's length justification documents. Onerous documentation requirement has been introduced for specific transactions such as business restructuring, intra-group services etc. The TP Guidelines has also introduced the simplified approach for low value-adding intra-group services.

Key Takeaways

- Understand the impact of the latest TP compliance requirements under the TP Guidelines 2024 and TP Rules 2023 on Multinationals and Domestic Groups.
- Learn to develop effective compliance strategies to avoid penalties.
